WHOLESALE GROCERS

MEXIA, TEXAS,

Dec. 2nd 1925.

Mr. Amos G. Carter, Ft. Worth, Tex.

My dear Mr. Carter:

Among the controversy between you and "his or his Honor, the Governor, I am constrained to say "Lay on Mr. Duff" etc. Of course, your friends knew just what your attitude would be with reference to the urgent request of his lordship, and I want to congratulate you most heartily on the splendid manner in which you have handled it. Your address to the "People of Texas" directed old juice of both sides and hair and is a just rebuke to the villainous and vituperative monstrosity that he is -

As between a gentleman who might take an occasional drink and whose hospitality manifests itself in ministering to the comfort and pleasure of his friends and guests, and one who is void of principle and whose official acts both past and present are a stench in the nostrils of decent citizens, the good people of Texas will not be slow to register their choice.

This letter to you was mendacious, malicious and vile and my only regret is that the proprieties of the occasion would not permit you to tell him to go to H—.

His "righteous indignation" — perish the thought! A righteous impulse would fell him dead on the spot.

This letter is to say I'm with you.
On with the dance!

Cordially yours,
A. H. Berry

P.S.

I'm sure my good friend, Dr. Clay Johnson is likewise a friend of yours and you have my permission to show this letter to him. He is one of God's noblemen —
