Dear Mr. Carter,

I have just read in the Houston Post-Dispatch the statement that you have given out to the people of Texas. I wish to congratulate you upon the stand you have taken. As a man interested especially in the educational affairs of Texas I would like very much for you to accede to any of the demands made by the Fergusons. Putting it in West Texas slang "stay on the job". I have not heard any one statement of criticism offered against you relative to the little matter that happened at A & M. It so happened that one of our fellow townsmen sat directly behind you at the game. He told us about it when he came home. We all agree that you are right in your explanation for Mr. Moody. However the few of us down here that are Texas University men regretted the trubbing that A & M gave us. May I assure you my respect and confidence.

Yours truly,

O.A. Fleming
