Mr. Amos G. Carter,
Ft Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

I read with keen interest and sincere pleasure your recent reply to "Ma" Ferguson regarding your resignation as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the West Texas Cattle College.

Just happened to think you might like to read, or even publish a little poem composed by the writer a few days back.

Am enclosing same to you herewith and submitting same subject to any change

Well Jim, Said Jack I'll do all I possibly can,
But I am inclined to beleive you are bucking the wrong man.

For Dan Moody is a Devil when he gets started right,
He'll show you up in Public and give you an awful fight.

I've read your articles in the paper and you say he's only a lad,
But when he gets through with you, You'll see he's no cad.

You say you are the smartest man that ever attended school,
But if you Flirt with Moody he'll make you out a fool.

I thought the same about myself here in my little State,
But the Ku Klux Klan impeached me and wiped me off the ~~stage~~ SLATE

I too ran for Senate but it didn't do me any good,
The G.O.P. had to beat me and left me where I stood.

You are up against it and I beleive there's no way out,
For Dan Moody will get you, there isnt any doubt.

There is only one route left I see for you to take,
That is to give up your office before it is to late.

Trade your farm for something in some other little place,
Where you wont hear of Dan Moody or ever see his face.

Now Jim this advice comes from one ,who knows that it is true,
I have had the same thing put to me that Moody will put to you.

All I can say for you to do is the best your Knowledge will permit,
And send in your resignation before Moody gives you a hit.

W. P. Jones.
Sanderson, Texas

as for this special session Jim in no position to say.
For if Dan Moody conducts it, its bound to go his way.

Ferguson Asks Walton's Advice

Jim Ferguson called Jack Walton on the phone the other day. And the girl at central office heard what they had to say.

Well-o Jack, said Jim, in an awful loud tone, Are you in your private office, or are you in your home?

I am the smartest man this state has ever known. But this trifling Dan Moody just wont leave me alone.

We put it over the Kix and beat the G.O.P. But this awful Dan Moody has made a monkey out of me.

He dug up the road suit and the jury went his way. And the Verdict read guilty and the company has to pay.

Now I am interested in this Company a hundred shares or more. And to think he had done this has made me awful sore.

We have pardoned convicts by the dozens and haven't got a cent. But the people here in Texas thinks we've made a mint.

We are not fighting anyone but we only want what's fair. And the words of impeachment is running through the air.

Now Jack I am not exactly broke but I am badly paid. And if you will help me out of this I'll run for President.

And if I am elected which I think I'll surely be. I'll give you the best job there is working under me.

I have a farm near Temple in the County they call Bell. But they'll make it hotter there for me than that word down here.

So if you can advise me just what I ought to do. I'll return the favor some day and do as much for you.

Ferguson Asks Walton's Advice

Jim Ferguson called Jack Walton on the phone the other day,
And the girl at central office heard what they had to say.

Hell-o Jack, said Jim, in an awful loud tone,

Now Jack I am not exactly broke but I am badly bent,
And if you will help me out of this I'll run for President.

And if I am elected which I think I'll surely be,
I'll give you the best job there is working under me.

So if you can advise me just what I ought to do,

*They asked for a special session which we did not approve.
But I think that we played hell by not letting em make this move.*

you may see fit to make in case you should see fit to send it to press.

Certainly want to congratulate you upon the stand you took toward Mrs. Ferguson and more than that, upon your willingness to take your stand before her
and "Texas" and in fact,
the whole U.S.

Might also add I was entirely sober and quite sane
when I wrote the enclosed lines -

Thanking you for your kind attention, I am sir,
Yours very truly,
D. P. Jones - Jones
