CARTER REFUSES TO RESIGN FROM TECH BOARD

CHARGES OF GOVERNOR DENIED IN LETTER

Amos G. Carter, member of the board of directors of the Texas Technological College, whose resignation was demanded Monday by a group of citizens and Ferguson, announced Tuesday that he would not accede to their request. A letter, announcing his resignation and asking the Governor and the legislature to give to the press, just as the Governor had been the day before. A statement from Carter, replying to the Ferguson charges, was given to the public at the same time as the answer to Mrs. Ferguson. The letter and the statement follow:

"Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, Austin, Texas:"

"The charges contained in your letter of the 3rd instant are in the preamble, for I have no interest in the letter as a member of the board of the Texas Technological College, and I am not a party to any discussion of the matter.

"My appointment was made by Governor Stoddert for four years, two of which have already passed. I have always been a supporter of Governor Stoddert, and I am fully aware of the difficulties and problems which face the college. I am also aware of the fact that the college has been operating under a deficit for several years."

"I am therefore unable to express any opinion on the matter at hand."

"Yours truly,

"Amos G. Carter"

ROADFUND AND BILLS TIED UP IN ROW

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 24.

The road funds and the power bill are tied up in Congress.

The Senate refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee.

The Senate bill provides for the establishment of a road fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of highways. The House bill provides for the establishment of a power fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of power plants.

The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days.

LISTENING TO FORT WORTH Through WBPAP

AUSTIN, Dec. 1. -"The Governor has refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House has refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee. The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days." -By Associated Press.

WANT TO HIRE A خاص

ROADFUND AND BILLS TIED UP IN ROW

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 24.

The road funds and the power bill are tied up in Congress.

The Senate refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee.

The Senate bill provides for the establishment of a road fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of highways. The House bill provides for the establishment of a power fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of power plants.

The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days.

LISTENING TO FORT WORTH Through WBPAP

AUSTIN, Dec. 1. -"The Governor has refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House has refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee. The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days." -By Associated Press.

ROADFUND AND BILLS TIED UP IN ROW

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 24.

The road funds and the power bill are tied up in Congress.

The Senate refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee.

The Senate bill provides for the establishment of a road fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of highways. The House bill provides for the establishment of a power fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of power plants.

The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days.

LISTENING TO FORT WORTH Through WBPAP

AUSTIN, Dec. 1. -"The Governor has refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House has refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee. The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days." -By Associated Press.

ROADFUND AND BILLS TIED UP IN ROW

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 24.

The road funds and the power bill are tied up in Congress.

The Senate refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee.

The Senate bill provides for the establishment of a road fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of highways. The House bill provides for the establishment of a power fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of power plants.

The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days.

LISTENING TO FORT WORTH Through WBPAP

AUSTIN, Dec. 1. -"The Governor has refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House has refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee. The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days." -By Associated Press.

ROADFUND AND BILLS TIED UP IN ROW

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 24.

The road funds and the power bill are tied up in Congress.

The Senate refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee.

The Senate bill provides for the establishment of a road fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of highways. The House bill provides for the establishment of a power fund, to be used for the construction and maintenance of power plants.

The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days.

LISTENING TO FORT WORTH Through WBPAP

AUSTIN, Dec. 1. -"The Governor has refused to act on the road fund bill, and the House has refused to act on the power bill, thus keeping the two issues in the hands of the conference committee. The conference committee is expected to report its bill to the Senate and the House, and the two houses are expected to act on it within the next few days." -By Associated Press.
FERGUSON SAYS CALL NOT YET REFUSED

(Continued from Page 1.)

The Pierial Club will meet at the office of the directors at a meeting in Sweetwater. Anyone may attend the meeting. The location is the Governor's residence. There are no other club meetings scheduled for the immediate future.

In regard to the charges made by the Attorney General against the Governor, I wish to state that these charges are unfounded. I am not of the opinion that the Governor is guilty of any criminal offense. I feel that the Governor has been wrongly accused and that he should be afforded a fair trial. I am confident that the Governor will be found not guilty.

In conclusion, I would like to say that I believe in the Governor and in the administration of the State. I am not of the opinion that the Governor should be removed from office. I am convinced that the Governor is doing his best for the people of Texas and that he is doing it in a fair and just manner.

J. B. MOODY
Attorney General

CECIY BURERS

The Sunnyside College of the Baptist Church will give a handbell band concert on October 12th at 7:30 p.m. at the college. The concert will feature the Sunnyside College Band and will be conducted by Dr. J. B. Moody, the director of the college band.

The college band will perform a selection of compositions, including patriotic songs and classical pieces. The concert will be held in the college auditorium, which has a capacity of 500 people. The admission fee is $2.00 per person.

In case of inclement weather, the concert will be held in a covered area located near the college auditorium.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the college band director, Dr. J. B. Moody, at 555-0123.