

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From Press

Media

Date 11-29-25

Somebody blundered down at College Station on Thanksgiving Day when Amon G. Carter was put out of the ball park for expressing his sentiments on two leading questions of the day—football and the highway muddle. But that man who brought him back into the grounds, was not to blame. He did a sensible thing.