REFUSES TO QUIT SCHOOL POSITION; DENIES ALL CHARGES

Fort Worth, Dec. 1.—Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher, will not comply with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's request that he resign from the board of directors of the West Texas Technology College.

Carter, in a lengthy statement issued today in answer to Governor Ferguson's letter to him yesterday, declared his resignation from the board would be offered only thru demand of the people of Texas, or by request of the other members of the board.

The publisher termed the woman governor's charges against him of violating prohibition laws "an effort to divert attention from the highway expenditures situation" at Austin.

He denied all charges in the executive's letter.
