

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From

Mesquiter

Mesquite

Date

12/4/25

— OO —

Amon G. Carter of Fort Worth, appointed on the board of the West Texas Technological College by former Governor Neff, does not propose to surrender his commission to Governor Ferguson. If he is guilty of violating the liquor laws, as the Governor intimates, he ought to resign, but if he has done nothing worse than hurrah for Dan Moody then he certainly ought to stick.

— OO —