

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From

Date

Herald

Demison

12-16-25

What we don't exactly understand is how the Highway Commission could award road contracts at its Monday session without Governor Jim being present to see that the administration was properly protected. Since it was the first time he failed to be present when such proceedings were had his absence needs explanation.