The Remington Standard

->TYPEWRITER

Embraces the Latest and Highest Achievements of Inventive and Mechanical Skill. It is returnable, undamaged, within thirty days from date of delivery for the full purchase price if not absolutely satisfactory in every respect.

"The World" Typewriters, costing $10 and $15 are the only practical low cost machines on the market. They write 44 and 77 characters respectively.

The NEOSTYLE Duplicating Apparatus, the perfected Cyclostyle, duplicates Typewriting and Pen Writing 1,000 to 2,000 times.

The Simplicity Cloth Bath supercedes the old time brush and blotter baths. The cloths are brass bound and always evenly moist. Descriptive matter mailed on application.

Typewriter Jupplies of Every Kind.

Greeting.

In presenting to you our Nineteenth Catalogue, we invite your attention to all of its comments, and especially to those items which show that the institution is marching steadily forward. Our magnificent new building will give to the University more than one-third additional room. This is being paid for as the work progresses; and, when completed, it will be paid for. The outside work is now completed. True, the burden of this great work has not been very widely distributed; but some ready and willing hands have been extended in help to him who has planned, pushed, and upheld the work from its inception.

We point with pride to our large and well equipped Faculty. Perfect harmony prevails throughout this body of most efficient workers. They are men and women dedicated first to the service of the Lord, and then to the cause of Christian Education.

With great gratitude to the friends and patrons of the University, and praise to Him, to whose service this institution is dedicated, we gird ourselves for the increasing work.

Miscellaneous.—Vocal Music, Calisthenics, Drawing, Penmanship.

New and improved apparatus has recently been purchased for this department, including maps, globes, charts, numeral forms, &c., &c.

The teachers of this department are true and tried. They have maintained the very highest standard of excellence in their respective departments. The University is fortunate in being able to retain them for another year.

PREPARATORY SCHOOL.

MISS BETTIE PARKER, PRINCIPAL.

Readers.—McGuffey's Sixth and Supplementary.

Speller.—Swinton's Word Book and Word Analysis.

English Grammar.—Graded Lessons, by Reed and Kellogg, Lockwood's Lessons in English.

Arithmetics.—Ray's New Intellectual and Wentworth's Grammar School.

Philosophy. - Houston's Intermediate.

Physiology. - Smith's Elementary.

Geography .- Barnes'.

U. S. History.—Barnes'.

Penmanship.

Algebra. - Wentworth's Shorter Course.

Latin.-Leighton's First Steps.

As a majority of boys and girls never go beyond the Preparatory Department, this School is arranged not only to prepare students for higher courses of study, but to prepare them for the ordinary duties of life. This school is a model school of the grammar grade. Latin is added to the course for the especial purpose of prepartion for higher work.

The University is most fortunate in being able to retain Miss Parker as Principal of this School. She has no superior in her line of work.

School of History and English Literature.

R. CLARK, PRINCIPAL.

FRESHMAN YEAR.

First Term.—English Grammar, Rhetoric and Composition, Essays, Declamations, History of United States.

Second Term.—Analysis of the English Sentence, Essays and Declamations, History of Rome, History of Texas.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

First Term.—History of English Language, Essays and Declamations, History of Greece.

Second Term.—History of English Language, Science of Rhetoric, Essays and Declamations, History of England.

IUNIOR YEAR.

First Term.—English Literature, Essays and Declamations, History of Middle Ages. Second Term.—English Literature, Essays and Declamations, History of Middle Ages.

SENIOR YEAR.

First Term.—English Literature, (Masterpieces), Essays and Orations, Modern History.

Second Term.—English Literature, (Masterpieces), Essays and Orations, Modern History.

The following Text-Books will be used in this department: Higher English, Reed & Kellogg; Bain's Higher English Grammar; Rhetoric and Composition, Hill. Science of Rhetoric, Hill. History of the United States, Swinton. Analysis of the English Sentence, Bain. History of Rome, Leighton. History of Middle Ages, Myer. History of England, Green's Shorter. English Literature, Arnold. History of Texas.

SCHOOL OF MATHEMATICS.

E. C. SNOW, PRINCIPAL.

FRESHMAN YEAR

Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry.

Text Books.—Wentworth & Hill's Arithmetic, Wentworth's Elements of Algebra, Wentworth's Geometry, Wentworth & Hill's Exercise Manuals.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

First Term.—Algebra and Geometry completed. Special attention given to original demonstration.

Second Term .- Wentworth's Trigonometry and Surveying.

JUNIOR YEAR.

Theory of Equations, Notes and Lectures. Analytic Geometry, Plane and Solid, the former embracing the conic sections and some of the higher plane curves. Wentworth's Analytic Geometry.

SENIOR YEAR.

Taylor's Differential and Integral Calculus.

Lectures on the history of Mathematics, pointing out the historical and logical growth of its several branches. Also, by an analysis of the Science, each branch in the course will be located and defined, and their relations to each other noticed.

Much stress is laid upon a thorough study of Algebra and Geometry, both for their own sake and as furnishing a necessary basis for satisfactory progress in the higher mathematics. Hence, they are made to cover one and one-half years in the course, but in some instances they are completed in one year. A faithful study of Algebra as far as Quadratics, and a fair knowledge of Plane Geometry to begin with, will enable the diligent pupil to accomplish this.

SCHOOL OF ANCIENT LANGUAGES.

A SKIDMORE, PRINCIPAL.

The constant effort of the teacher of this department is to give pupils a thorough knowledge of Latin and Greek. The ability to read these languages with fluency is imparted by conducting pupils through the works of the most standard classic authors. To translate English into Latin and Greek with facility and correctness is the surest test of scholarship. To enable pupils to do this they are drilled in composition from the first lessons to the end of the course. The books-used in this department are Allen & Grenough's Latin Grammar, Goodwin's Greek Grammar, Owen's Acts of Apostles, Harper's series of Hebrew text-books, and of the Higher Classics, any standard editions.

For beginners, Leighton's First Steps in Latin.

LATIN.

The course in Latin covers a period of four years.

FRESHMAN YEAR.

First Steps in Latin, Fables, Anecdotes, Biographies of distinguished ancient men; easy extracts from Cæsar's Gallic Wars.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

Latin Syntax, Turning English into Latin continued, Cæsar's Gallic Wars, four books; Sallust's Conspiracy of Cataline; Ancient Geography, Mitchell.

JUNIOR YEAR.

Latin Composition, Allen & Grenough's Part I. Cicero's Invectives Against Cataline, Virgil's Æneid, four books.

SENIOR YEAR.

Latin Composition, Allen & Grenough's Part II; Odes, Epodes, Satires and Epistles of Horace, Germania and Agricola of Tacitus; Livy, two books.

GREEK.

• The course in Greek covers a period of three years.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

First Greek Book; Acts of Apostles.

JUNIOR YEAR.

Greek Syntax, Turning English into Greek, Xenophen's Anabasis, three books; Homer's Iliad, three books.

SENIOR YEAR.

Greek Composition, Demosthenes on the Crown, Plato's Apology and Crito, Euripides' Alcestis or Medea.

HEBREW.

This course includes Harper's Manual, Elements of Hebrew Grammar, and Reading Selections from Genesis, Exodus, Ruth and the Psalms.

The Principal should be consulted before purchasing books.

School of Mental and Moral Science.

A. CLARK, PRINCIPAL.

FRESHMAN YEAR.

The Pentateuch, Joshua, Judges and Ruth; SacredHistory and Geography.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

The Prophets and Psalms; Sacred History and Geography.

JUNIOR YEAR.

Analysis of the New Testament; Psychology; Scheme of Redemption; Hermeneutics.

SENIOR YEAR.

Psychology Completed; Evidences of Christianity; Logic; Political Economy; Homiletics; History of the Reformations.

This course of study is designed especially for young men who wish to proclaim the Gospel of Christ, and generally, for all who wish to obtain such a knowledge of God's Written Word, of themselves and their environments, as will enable them to adorn whatever profession they may select.

SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL SCIENCE.

W. B. PARKS, PRINCIPAL.

FRESHMAN YEAR.

Houston's Physical Geography, Colton's Zoology, Hutchison's Physiology, Yaggy's Grand Charts—his Anatomical, his Geographical, and his Astronomical—are used to illustrate these subjects.

SOPHOMORE YEAR.

Gage's Natural Philosophy, Gray's School and Field Book of Botany.

JUNIOR YEAR.

Dana's Geology, Avery's Chemistry. Chemistry is decidedly an experimental science. We propose, therefore, to bring out the leading laws and principles by experiments. Gage's Physics.

SENIOR YEAR.

Gage's Physics, Young's Astronomy, Peck's Mechanics.

The Physical Laboratory contains all the appropriate apparatus requisite to illustrate the subject of physics as presented by Gage.

Laboratory exercises will be required as a part of the regular course in Chemistry; for which a fee of $5.00 will be charged.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

MRS. DESSIE PICKENS SNOW, PRINCIPAL.

In the study of the piano the student must pursue the most thorough system of modern technical training. We play the piano not only with fingers but with the mind, so it is our greatest desire to train pupils so thoroughly that they can, after completing the course here laid down, enter alone into a broader field of artistic culture.

Weekly piano recitals by teacher and advanced students, private examinations; concerts monthly. A careful and beautiful selection of studies and pieces from best composers, will be given as circumstances demand.

Grade I.—Goldbeck's Primary Technics; Carl Tælton's Technics, Book I; Twelve Technical Studies apres. Oscar Raif, the famous teacher of Berlin, and a book of Melodious Studies by Turner. Pieces from the following authors will be given:—Lichner, L. Kohler, Meyer, Emery, Hiller, etc. That foundation of all piano playing, a perfect legato touch, is acquired in First Grade.

Grade II.—Carlyle Petersilea's Technical Book I in connection with scales. Cramer's twenty celebrated studies, W. B. Mathews' "Art of Phrasing." Wrist action, phrasing slurs should be gained in this grade.

Grade III.—Carlyle Petersilea's Technical Book II with Henry G. Andre's unpublished method of playing scales and arpeggios, Czerney's School of velocity.

Any pupil who possesses average talent, and who has diligently and thoughtfully practiced, will gain strength, independence, a perfect legato touch and velocity—four things absolutely indispensible in a pianist.

Grade IV.—Book I of Gradus and Parnassum, with Kullak's Octave Studies. Gradus and Parnassum Book II.

Grade V.—Bach's well tempered Clavichoid, with 'Liszt's Rhapsodies, Chopin's Polonaises, Beethoven's Sonatas, etc.

Voice.—Method of producing tones as taught by Lyman Wheeler and Augusto Rotoli, of Boston; Studies by Concone, Bonaldi, Voccai, Litigen. Songs from Schumann, Schubert, Campana, Goldbeck, Cowan and others.

Through the untiring energy of the teacher of this department, aided by improved facilities for orderly work, our music school is becoming widely known for its superior advantages.

Mrs. Snow's theory and methods of teaching are those which obtain in the best conservatories of this country, modified by the views of the great teacher, Oscar Raif, of Berlin. That the training received is appreciated, though at times tiresome and seemingly severe, is attested by the fact that a pupil is rarely lost from the class except from necessity.

A music hall of several rooms, each provided with a piano, renders systematic practice and thorough supervision practicable. Ample provision will be made for any one who may desire to devote themselves exclusively to music. Daily practice of four hours or more may be had by the payment of an extra charge for the use of instrument.

To judges of music, the following compositions, rendered by members of the class of '90-'91, will serve as an index to the proficiency of pupils and character of music studied:

KAMMENOI OSTROW,	Rubenstein.
WALDSTEIN SONATA,	Beethoven.
Paraphrase on Mendelssohn's Midsumn	ner Night's
Dream,	Liszt.
ETUDE DE CONCERT, C Major,	Rubenstein.
BALLADE, A Flat, Para	Chopin.
MOONLIGHT SONATA,	Beethoven.
VALSE CAPRICE,	Rubenstein.

SCHOOL OF ART.

MISS SALLIE CAYCE, PRINCIPAL.

In nothing do we find more marks of progress than in Art. Once it was thought that only the few endowed with great talent could be artistic, hence the Michael Angelos, Titians, Tintorets, etc., etc. Now it is acknowledged, that with patient labor, this grand art is within the reach of all. It has been truly said that "if you have genius, industry will improve it; if you have none, industry will take its place."

With correct judgment, keenness of observation, loving and unremitting labor, the door to this enchanted realm swings ajar and all who will may enter.

By nature, children turn to the pencil for pleasure. This fondness, rightly guided, leads to future success in the studio.

That which is elevating should be cultivated. Art is refining in its influence.

^{*} Names not among matriculates.

Our people are arousing from their lethargy on the subject, and love for and interest in this great art is growing each year.

The following is the course for all who enter the Art department:

Outline drawing from Geometrical solids.

Light and Shade in pencil.

2. { Crayon—Landscapes, animals, figures. } Advanced—Portraits.

Pastel falls under the same head as Painting.

(Painting—Landscapes, animals from studies.

3. Fruits and flowers from nature.

SCHOOL OF MODERN LANGUAGES.

MISS MATTIE WADE, PRINCIPAL.

GERMAN.

First Year.—Collar's Eysenbach's Grammar. Worman's First German Book, and selections from easy German prose and poetry.

Second Year.—Cook's Otto's German Grammar. A short history of Germany, and plays from the Classical Authors.

FRENOH.

First Year.—Joyne's Otto's French Grammar. Worman's First and Second French Books.—Mere Michel. Selections from easy French Works.

Second Year.— Joyne's Otto's Grammar. Hennequins Idioms— Louvestre's Philosophe Vous les Toits.—Selections from French Classics.

A careful drill in composition and letter writing is a part of the second year's work, in both French and German classes. The conversational method is followed as far as is compatible with the best advancement of the classes.

Higher English Grammar and Rhetoric will be taught in this department.

Miss Wade brings to her work a ripe scholarship and good experience in teaching. After taking a six years course at Butler University, she took the master's degree in French and German. She has spent some time in Berlin and Paris studying the French and German languages.

She has taught in Christian College, Columbia, Mo.; Nevada University, Nevada, Mo.; and has been recently teaching in the Judson Institute, Marion, Ala.

SPANISH.

This will be taught by the Assistant Music Teacher.

First Year.—Combined Spanish Method—De Tornos, Easy Reading exercises.

Second Year. - Grammar completed, Selections from best authors.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOL.

A. C. EASLEY, PRINCIPAL.

Realizing the fact that a large number of those who enter school desire only such an education as will fit them for the active duties of life, the Board of Directors has established a Commercial Department in order to meet this growing demand. The large patronage this department has received since its establishment last year convinces the Board of the necessity of enlarging the apartments and fitting them up more thoroughly for the work. This will be done in a very short time and we will then be enabled to make our instructions more practical in every sense of the word.

SOME ADVANTAGES.

- 1. Being a part of A.-R. C. U., this department offers its pupils all the advantages of that institution. Such as free admittance to the regular classes of the University and to the various lectures, privileges of the various literary societies, the advantage of association with the class of students that usually attend the University, and the immeasurable advantage of being in the moral atmosphere that surrounds this institution.
- 2. Pupils may enter at any time of the year and at any stage of mental advancement, as we have a primary and a preparatory department in the University, where pupils of limited attainments may prepare for the commercial course.
- 3. Instruction is practical and to the point. No time is wasted in abstruse theorizing, but pupils are put right to work and learn to do by doing.
- 4. Notwithstanding all these advantages our rates of tuition are lower than the average, as will be seen below.

RATES OF TUITION.

Business Course—Including instruction in Book-keeping, Commercial Law, Commercial Arithmetic, Practical Grammar, Orthography, Business Correspondence, Business Penmanship and Actual Business Practice—

Three months, in advance, - - - - $18.00 Six months "" - - - - $35.00 Nine months, in advance, - - - $45.00

Shorthand and Typewriting Course—Including instruction in the theory and practice of Shorthand writing according to the most approved methods, Grammar, Elements of Rhetoric and Composition, Orthography, general Amanuensis work and the manipulation and care of the Typewriter—

Three months, in advance - - - $15.00
Six months " " - - - $30.00
Nine months, " " - - - $40.00
Typewriting alone $6.00 per term of three months.

The "Life Scholarship."

We wish it distinctly understood that we do not sell unlimited scholarships. Our pupils are given every opportunity to complete the course in as short a time as possible. If they complete it in three months, they pay for three month's tuition, and if it takes them a year to complete it, then they pay for a year's tuition. We do not want that class of pupils who bite at the life scholarship bait. For it is a bait thrown out by a certain class of schools to catch those who have no confidence in their own ability, and, hence, are easily seduced by the dazzling offer of a "life scholarship for fifty dollars!" We do not place any such premium on laziness, but furnish our pupils the best instruction we can command and expect them to pay what it is reasonably worth.

ELOCUTION.

Special classes will be formed for advanced pupils during the session. The services of some well known and competent elecutionist will be secured for these classes. We hope to be able to have Prof. T. M. Clark for such classes. Charges to be at teacher's own rates.

Elocution taught in the Preparatory School free of extra charge.

Courses of Study

LEADING TO THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR.

THE CLASSICAL COURSE, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, requires a completion of all the studies in the School of Ancient Languages except the Hebrew; all in the School of Mathematics except Calculus; all in the School of Physical Science except the Senior Year; all in the School of History and Literature except English Literature of the Senior Year; all of the School of Mental and Moral Science except the Biblical Course. Those who take the Biblical Course in addition to the above studies may omit the Junior and Senior Year of Mathematics. The Hebrew belongs to the Biblical Course.

THE SCIENTIFIC COURSE, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, requires a completion of all the studies in the Schools of Natural Science and Mathematics; all in the School of Literature and History except the Senior Year; Psychology, Logic and Political Economy in the School of Mental and Moral Science; and the Latin in the School of Ancient Languages; or the French and German in the School of Modern Languages.

THE LITERARY COURSE, leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Literature, requires all the studies of the Schools of Literature and History and Natural Science; all in the School of Mathematics except the Senior Year; Psychology, Logic and Political Economy in the School of Mental Science and the German or French in the School of Modern Languages. Each of these courses of study rquires four years for completion.

GRADUATION.—Certificates of proficiency are granted to students who honorably complete the studies embraced in any school. Appropriate degrees are conferred on those who honorably complete the Classical, Scientific or Literary course. Young ladies may omit the higher mathematics beyond Geometry and Trigonometry, supplying the time with the study of the Fine Arts and Literature.

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR.—The degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Science and Literature are conferred after a satisfactory completion of the corresponding courses.

GRADUATION THESIS. Each student, before taking a degree, will be required to submit to the faculty an essay on some subject in Science, Literature or Art. A fee of $10 must be paid by each person taking the Baccalaureate Degree.

A student who has taken a degree in any course may obtain the diploma of any other course by taking up the additional certificate or certificates.

The graduates of the several courses enjoy equally all the privileges, rights, and honors of the University.

THE MASTER'S DEGREE.

This degree will be conferred on those who take the post-graduate course. The studies of this course are elective by the student, with the advice and consent of the Faculty, and are to be pursued in the University for one full session.

A Bachelor of three years' standing in any one of the courses may receive the Honorary Degree of Master in that course; provided he shall have maintained during that interval an exemplary character, and pursued studies relating to the degree.

General Information.

SITUATION.

The University is situated at the village of Thorp's Spring, one mile south-west of the Brazos River, in the midst of picturesque hills and sparkling brooks. The R. R. Station is Granbury, on the Ft. Worth & Rio Grande R. R., three miles from the University.

THE SESSION

Consists of two terms of five and four calendar months respectively. It opens on the second Wednesday in September, and closes on the second Thursday in June. A regular Summer Term for Special Classes has become a permanent feature of the University work.

Where all the extra branches are taken in addition to the regular course, a reduction of twenty per cent will be made from the entire bill.

Pupils who take the Commercial Course in one year will not be charged extra for studies in other schools. For terms in the Commercial School see remarks under that head.

Every item of expense for Board, Tuition, Art, Music, etc., will be settled through the Treasurer. All moneys may be deposited with him, which will be kept in the University safe and expended as necessity demands. In this way, all risk of losing money or having it stolen, and all extravagance will be avoided. If parents will co-operate with us in this matter there will be no cause for complaint of unnecessary spending of money by their children.

BOOKS.

All books used by the University are seld to the pupils at publishers' prices. Books that are not greatly damaged may be returned when pupils are through with them, for which they will be allowed a reasonable price.

SOME PARTICULARS.

Young men and young ladies keep in order their rooms and beds. Each bed is furnished with a good spring, a mattress, pillows, two blankets and a comfort. Rooms are furnished with all necessary furniture—lamps, brooms, etc.; and these, when broken, must be replaced by those breaking them. Young men must wait on themselves in the matter of cutting wood, making fires, etc.

Sheets, pillowcases and toilet articles furnished by the students.

Time lost on account of sickness may be made up at some subsequent session, either in person or by substitute, but money will not be refunded. When the student matriculates he owes for tuition from that day till the end of the term, and board for one month; and the University is due him the board and tuition promised. If the student chooses to relinquish all or a part of what the University owes him, he need not expect to be paid to do so.

Vocal Music taught in all grades without extra charge. First steps of Drawing and sketching without extra charge. The daughters of regular preachers and widows of limited means will be allowed a discount of 12½ per cent on all bills. Other benefits according to the law of love.

SPECIAL REQUEST.

Parents are requested to forbid their children making accounts at the stores during their stay at the University. It is impossible for teachers to prevent this when parents allow it. Any expense money may be deposited with the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees for safe keeping and proper use. The Treasurer will receipt for the money and spend it according to the direction of the parent or guardian.

PHYSICIAN.

The University has been fortunate in retaining Dr. Irby as Physician. His thorough acquaintance and hearty sympathy with all the workings of the institution, together with his large experience and great skill as a physician, render his services in the University invaluable. He makes daily inspection of the sanitary condition of all departments of the University. Boarding pupils receive his advice and attention free of cost to them, and are therefore expected to consult him whenever the advice of a physician is needed. Our record of health is unsurpassed. This is attributable to the healthfulness of the location and to Dr. Irby's carefulness.

of a city, free from the evils about railway stations—the nearest being at Granbury, three miles distant.

- II. State of Society. It is unsurpassed in moral bearing and social worth. No dram-shops or other dens of vice about the village. The citizens are of that class of people who are drawn here by educational and church advantages.
- III. Departments of Study. Ample facilities of a Primary School in addition to the Preparatory and Collegiate. Vocal Music is an every day exercise. Instrumental Music, upon a variety of instruments, is taught to all who desire it. German, French and Spanish. And then we have a Normal Department for the express purpose of training and qualifying teachers. And, besides, we have a Bible Department in which the Scriptures are thoroughly taught.
- IV. Records. A permanent record is kept of the Attendance, Deportment and Application of each student, also of his proficiency in the various studies as determined by examinations held at the close of each month, and a monthly report of the same made to parents and guardians. Should parents or guardians fail to receive a report at the proper time, by notifying the Secretary of the Faculty a duplicate will be issued.
- V. Literary Societies. There are three of these. The "Biblical," "Add-Ran" and "Walton." There are rooms specially fitted up for their exercises. All these Societies are making commendable progress. Their recent efforts to raise funds for room-equipments and special libraries, show a determination to keep pace with the growth of the University. The literary advantages of these societies are not excelled by any of the various departments of the University.
- VI. Miscellaneous. Library, Cabinet of Minerals, Geological Specimens and Laboratory.
- VII. The University is only three miles from the Granbury station of the Ft. Worth & Rio Grande Railway.
- VIII. A great saving of time, money and health in the arrangement of the sessions. There is no loss of time from the beginning to the close of the session. Every day in the week has its appropriate share and kind of study and exercises.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

- I. There must be a hearty endorsement of the article headed "Conduct of Students," found below.
- II. The required tuition fees must be paid except in cases of special arrangements.
- III. A course of study must be selected with the advice and consent of the Faculty, sufficient for constant and vigorous work.
- IV. Every student must subscribe to the following agreement: "I solemnly promise, on my truth and honor, to observe and obey all the laws of the University."

CONDUCT OF STUDENTS.

+303000 OH

It is presumed that every student will have some knowledge of the first principles of morality, propriety and decorum, and that it will therefore be unnecessary to prescribe a complete code of specific rules and regulations. But it will be expected and required of all students:

- I. That they be diligent in their study, punctual in their attendance upon worship, recitations, examinations and other University exercises, and that they promptly render a valid and satisfactory reason to the proper officers for any delinquency.
- II. That they treat all persons, especially the students and teachers of the University, with becoming respect.
- III. That they do not tresspass upon the premises of any person, and they in no way deface or injure the property of the University.
- IV. That they attend no Exhibition of an immoral tendency; no race course, billiard saloon, bar or tippling house.

V. That they neither introduce upon the premises of the University, nor use there or elsewhere any kind of intoxicating beverage; and that they abstain from the use of tobacco.

VI. That they neither keep in their possession nor use any fire-arms, a dirk, a bowie knife, or any kind of deadly weapon.

VII. That they abstain from profanity, the desecration of the Lord's Day, all kinds of gaming for a reward or prize of any kind; and from card playing, even for amusement, and also whatever else is inconsistent with good order, good taste and good morals.

VIII. That they attend public worship every Lord's Day.

IX. That they do not leave the University until regularly dismissed at the end of the session, without special permission of the Faculty.

BUILDINGS.

The new University Building, begun in Sept. 1890, has exceeded in magnificence what was originally designed. At this writing the outside work is complete. The three Literary Societies are taking steps to furnish, in suitable style, their own rooms; and it is expected that, by the opening of the coming session, the rooms will all be ready for occupancy. This with the former buildings will give ample accommodations for seven hundred pupils. All the school buildings are substantially built of stone. The cut on this catalogue is a true representation of the University Building.

HOLIDAYS.

We promise only two. Thanksgiving and Christmas, and these will be observed with proper decorum. If, in the judgment of the Faculty, others shall be needed, they will be given without any reference to custom or youthful fancy. Parents and children must learn that school life is one of work, and just as much play must be allowed as is helpful and healthful. Parents will please not encourage nor expect their children to come home on Christmas, nor any time before the close of the session. It is impossible to have children do good work when their minds are diverted from study by going home, or thinking of going. The sessions are not so long, and embrace the best and most healthful time of the year, and should be filled with earnest work.

ARRANGEMENT OF STUDY.

The School is assembled every day in the week. On Saturdays, Literary exercises. On Sunday the usual Sunday-school exercises are held in the forenoon. Study hours at night from seven to nine. Study halls are arranged for boarding girls and young boys where they study at night with a teacher. No margin is given for idleness. Every day has sufficient time alotted for recreation. Pupils must know that they come here for work, and not for play, and that play is subservient to work.

Besides the daily reading of the Holy Scriptures and their study on Lord's Day, all students in the Collegiate department will have one recitation per week in Bible study.

THE SUMMER SESSION

OF ADD-RAN CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY.

This is a session of eight weeks for the special benefit of advanced classes, and for students who wish to supplement the work of the regular session. A special circular for the Summer Term has been issued and will be sent to all who wish it. This is a permanent feature in the work of the University, and has increased in interest and usefulness from the first session.

The Summer Session begins Monday after commencement,

Cudownent.

Something has already been done in this direction, but much more must yet be done, before the University can reach that full measure of usefulness which is desired. Any persons who have it in their hearts to aid in this good work, need not wait for the soliciting agent to visit them. They can send at once to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees their donations or pledges. Or, if they will indicate their willingness to do something, the agent will call on them and receive their fellowship.

A thoroughly equipped Bible School must be established in the University at an early day; and this can not be done without endowment. The ready response which the calls for help for young preachers have received this session, encourages the work greatly. A noble band of young men giving their lives to the proclamation of the gospel, has been enrolled this past session; and many others are standing ready to enter as soon as the door of opportunity is open. May our Father put it into the hearts of His children to give liberally of their means to this great Christian work. Brethren, give while you live; and, dying, leave a legacy to your Christian University, just as you do to your children. It is your child.
