Cheers for Moody Cause Ma to Ask Carter to Resign

Ft. Worth Publisher Held Up as Bad Example by Governor; Letter Pains Her

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN, Nov. 30 — Protesting that the act gave her much pain Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, in a lengthy letter today demanded resignation of Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth newspaper publisher, as member of the board of directors of the West Texas Technological college. Mr. Carter's alleged disregard of prohibition laws is the cause given for the governor's request.

In her letter Governor Ferguson charges Carter with causing stimulants to be dispensed when the Oil Men's association met in Fort Worth last year. She charges, too, he was under influence of stimulants Thanksgiving day at College Station when he attended the Texas university-Texas A. and M. football game.

"I assure you this is an unpleasant task which I have carefully considered and only a strict conception of duty impels my action," the governor wrote.

Amon G. Carter is president of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. At the Texas A. and M. college and Texas university football game Thanksgiving day he is reported to have admitted yelling "hurrah for Texas Aggies and Dan Moody."

Moody is the Attorney General of Texas, who has been investigating the state highway department and who has recovered $600,000 from the American Road company.

Aroused Ire

At the game Carter's statements evidently aroused the ire of Governor Ferguson and her husband, former Governor James E. Ferguson, for Saturday she issued a proclamation offering a $500 reward each for the conviction of all wealthy Texan persons for violation of the liquor laws.

The governor's letter says in part:

"If those in charge of the management and direction of our educational institutions shall by their personal deportment display those vices that are repugnant to the idea of strict morality and sobriety, the such result in the student of these institutions cannot be expected. If as head of the board of the West Texas Technological college you reserve to yourself the right to appear in a public place in the condition you were in at College Station on Thanksgiving day, when every student who saw you could justify him or herself for doing the same thing. If a student at Tech college should appear on the Lubbock campus as you appeared in College Station the faculty would promptly expel such student from the college. And yet in such case the student could plead your case and the example and the precedent set by you in justification. If the heads of our institutions cannot practice and preach sobriety then our hopes for educated citizenship are vain and useless.

"It is with deep regret that I protest against your further occupying a place on the West Texas Technological board. I plead for a better example for our boys and girls. You have set a standard that cannot be tolerated. For the good of the public service I emphatically affirm that you should send me your resignation. Miriam A. Ferguson, governor of Texas."
