

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From

News

Date

West

12/18/25

we hope the new highway commission will go to work to give Texas good highways. If they don't do it the people are simply going to abolish the commission and go back to the old method of building and maintaining roads by county commissioners. Good roads is what the people want, and it is what they are entitled to if they put up $20,000,000 a year to secure them.