

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From

Date

Democratic Voice
Columbian
12-11-25

Joe Burkett may not have the ability to manage a highway department, but none that read the account of the Texas Road Maintenance Association meeting at San Angelo last week will have the temerity to question his ability as a steam roller chaffeur. He had those county judges and commissioners endorsing and endorsing. Our own county judge and Judge Davis of Brownwood tried to dissent, in at least part of the endorsing, but couldn't. The arrangements were already made.