

Texas Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From Journal
Register

Date 12-4-25

PURELY PUNGENT

Absence makes the heart go yonder.—Dallas News.

Lynch Davidson refers to Dan Moody as "youthful". Well, Dan can't help that. He was born that way.—Dallas News.

The hard part isn't to make the car last, but to reconcile yourself to keeping it when it looks like that.—Duluth Herald.

It may not be long before this stuff the bootleggers sell will require a snake bite as a remedy.—Oklahoma City Daily Oklahoman.

The most liberal reward is usually offered for that which is worth the least—for instance, an outlaw.—Boston Traveler.

A committee of five usually consists of the man who does the work three others to pat him on the back and one to bring in a minority report.—Fort Worth Record-Telegram.

Love letters of the great seem small and puny compared with those of the more humble that are read in courts.—New York World.

Speaking of forward passes, that one of $5,000,000 from Court Volip to Secretary Melon wasn't so bad.—Providence Journal.

Recipe for a high explosive: One part criticism by her of his people; one part criticism by him of her people.—Duluth Herald.