TECH BOARD MEMBER SILENT ON CARTER'S SPAT WITH GOVERNOR

John W. Carpenter, only Dallas member of the board of directors of the Texas Technological college, refused Wednesday to discuss the request of Gov. Mirian Ferguson that Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher, resign as chairman of the board.

No meeting of the board has been called following the governor's request for the resignation and Mr. Carter's reply, in which he refused to grant the request, Mr. Carpenter said.

Asked for comment on the administration of the institution's affairs under Mr. Carter, Mr. Carpenter replied that he had absolutely nothing to say about the controversy and was not in any way interested in it.
