Publisher Carter

"Rooted" Too Loud

Is A. & M. Report

College Station, Texas, Nov. 27.—Some chagrin has been expressed by the management of the A. and M.-Texas game over a newspaper report that Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, was "put off" the field during the game yesterday. The facts are that Mr. Carter, while near the box occupied by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson and party, became quite enthusiastic in shouting "Hurrah for A. and M. and Dan Moody."

At the suggestion of President T. O. Walton of A. and M., Mr. Carter was urged to desist and finally invited to witness the game in a section where his enthusiasm was not so noticeable.
