Amon Carter Escorted Off Field at A. & M.

Special to The News.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Nov. 26.—Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, was put off Kyle Field Thursday afternoon by special officers, acting under orders from President T. O. Walton. Mr. Carter walked back of the box occupied by Gov. Ferguson and party and yelled, "Hurrah for A. & M. and Dan Moody." Mr. Walton remonstrated, telling Mr. Carter that his action was objectionable since Gov. Ferguson was guest of the College and told him if he repeated it he would be put off the field. Mr. Carter yelled the same thing again and was escorted out.
