The governor is reported as stating she has one of the famous Amon Carter canes. What the state administration appears to need is a crutch.

What we can't understand is how the state penitentiary system is making such huge profits as reported by the Fergusons. So far as is known the prison system got no highway contracts and reading the pardon record we can't understand where the prison system gets the labor.

Will somebody also please step to the front—Joe Burkett has retired from the news columns, Frank Lanham isn't news and T. K. Irwin has dropped from the front page.

The Ferguson-Carter episode seems closed. "Ma" Ferguson has a souvenir cane and Carter still has his job.
