CARTER SAYS PRESSURE OF BUSINESS MADE HIM RESIGN

FORT WORTH, Feb. 4 (AP)—Amon G. Carter, whose resignation was tendered to Governor Moody as chairman of the board of the Texas Technological college January 27, stated tonight that pressure of other matters forced him to decline the reappointment. The governor had written requesting him to reconsider, but Carter found this impossible. However, he said that he wanted friends of the college and the college as well to remember that he has just as keen an interest in the institution as ever and stands ready at all times to help, should help ever be needed.
