

From _____

Date 12-1-25

AMON CARTER TO ANSWER GOVERNOR

(By United Press)

FORT WORTH, Dec. 1.—Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Record-Telegram, Fort Worth, will not resign from the Board of Regents of the Texas Tech, as requested by Governor Miriam Ferguson.

In a lengthy statement issued today at 12:30, Mr. Carter denies all charges made by the woman executive in her letter released to the press Monday. He declares that he will resign through the demand of the people or at the request of other members of the board. Mr. Carter declares that the Governor's charges against him were made solely in an effort to divert the attention of the public from the highway situation as it has recently developed at Austin.

AUSTIN, Dec. 1.—Governor Ferguson is expected to make known shortly her stand on calling an extra session of the legislature. Former Governor James E. Ferguson told the United Press Monday night that neither the Governor or himself had given out any statement whatsoever regarding the calling of an extra session. He emphatically denied stories printed in Eastern papers quoting the Governor as having definitely decided not to issue a call convening a special session.

"We have given no interview to that effect," Ferguson stated.

Amon G. Carter, publisher of the Star-Telegram and Record-Telegram, Fort Worth, is expected to issue a statement today answering the letter of Governor Ferguson given to the public Monday.

AUSTIN, Dec. 1.—Governor Miriam Ferguson has apparently decided to let state matters rest awhile. With three offices in her official family vacant and the question of calling a special session undecided, she left Austin early today for Temple.

Jim Ferguson, however, was at the executive offices and had a long conference with Frank Hamer, former noted Ranger peace officer. It was unofficially learned that Hamer would be placed on the trail of "highbrow" violators of the prohibition law. The governor recently offered a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of any Texan for violating the liquor law who was worth five thousand dollars or more.