AMON G. CARTER RESIGNS AS TEXAS TECH REGENT

By Associated Press.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 4.—Resignation of Amon G. Carter of Fort Worth as chairman of the board of directors of Texas Technological College today was announced by Governor Dan Moody.

Appointment of Carl Phinney, former chief clerk of the house, to assistant secretary to the governor was also made public.

Miss Louise Snow of Lyford, former assistant chief clerk, was by acclamation of the house, named chief clerk.

Moody said he will submit to the senate Monday a nomination to succeed Carter.
