

Stephens and Dahlgren in Second Places

NEW YORK, July 6 (AP). — The congestion on the trains and buses over the weekend could hardly have been worse than the jam in the batting averages at the top of the two major leagues Tuesday.

Out of the crowd emerged two new hitting leaders, Frank McCormick of the Cincinnati Reds in the National League and Rookie Guy Curtright of the Chicago White Sox in the American, but their margins over the pace-makers of previous weeks, Babe Dahlgren and Vernon Stephens, were slight.

McCormick moved into first place with a .329 average after Monday's games, just one point better than Dahlgren, the Phillies' star, who slumped from .351 to .328 in a week. McCormick, although snagging the lead, skidded from a .336 average last week. Close behind this pair, Billy Herman of Brooklyn and Stan Musial of St. Louis were tied at .324.

In the American League Stephens, star shortstop of the St. Louis Browns, slipped from .342 to .333 and second place to yield the lead to Curtright. The White Sox outfielder skyrocketed into the lead late last week on the crest of a 26-game hitting streak that lifted his batting average to .362 last Thursday. But since then he, too, collapsed and Tuesday had a comparatively modest mark of .337.

Oris Hockett of Cleveland, who a week ago was tied with Stephens at .342, dropped to .327 and third place.
