Fort Worth Soldier Dies in Japanese Prison Camp

Mrs. Nora Denny, 1121 East Arlington, Sunday was notified by the War Department that one of her two soldier sons, Pfc. Joe C. Denny, 20, captured by the Japanese at the fall of Corregidor, had died in a Japanese prison camp in the Philippines.

Her other soldier son, Pvt. Marvin W. Denny, 27, a chaplain's clerk, also is a Japanese prisoner and is believed to be held in the same camp in which his brother died.

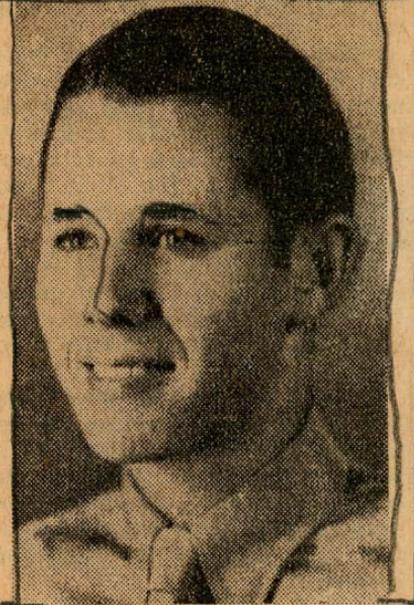

The death telegram, which stated that a letter of information would follow, is the third time Mrs. Denny has heard about Private Joe Denny since the fall of Corregidor.

The first word was that he was in a ton. That message May by informa a prisoner.
