AMON G. CARTER, PRESIDENT

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

January 7, 1933.

Mr. W. P. Ritter,
1201 Southwestern Life Bldg.,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of December 16th, as well as of December 20th addressed to the writer care 122 East 42nd Street, New York City, have been forwarded to this point.

I note that you are willing to dispose of three and four-tenths acres of ground adjoining Love Field at a price of $12,500.00, subject to prior sale or change in price. Incidentally, I have never owned any real estate in Dallas and regardless of this bargain value I would not be able to take advantage of your generous offer at this time. Recently, I noticed in the Dallas News a story to the effect that the American Airways was moving back to Dallas. You might be able to interest them in this unusual bargain.

Yours very truly,

ACC.KD
