

GLOBE

ARIZONA

ANCIENT PUEBLOS

within the city limits of Globe lies Besh-ba-Gowah Indian ruins, the fascinating remains of a 200 room Salado Indian pueblo.

MOGOLLON RIM

(pronounced Mug-e-own) north of Globe lies the country of Zane Grey, its rugged grandeur and original beauty unscarred by the civilizing hand of man.

GHOST TOWNS

the staring fronts of McMillan, only 10 miles from Globe, whisper thrilling tales of silver, shooting and saloons to the imagination.

WHITE MOUNTAINS

a recreation paradise under the sun and sky, where the delicious pine scented air puts new spring in your steps, soothes city nerves.

SALT RIVER CANYON

the "little" Grand Canyon a scenic wonder because of its colorful and rugged formations.

ARBORETUM

at near-by Superior, a famed wonderland of desert beauty that each Spring Nature paints with her brush of red, blue, purple, yellow.

TONTO NATIONAL MONUMENT

on Apache Trail . . . an excellent and well preserved specimen of the cliff homes of ancient Indian civilizations. Open every day.

DAMS

penned behind the Coolidge and Roosevelt dams the water of mighty rivers form crystal lakes.

DEVILS CANYON

a geological wonderland of grotesque rock formations, dear to the hearts of amateur and professional "rock-hounds."

SAN CARLOS APACHES

the once fierce warriors who now, are peaceful expert cattlemen. But who have retained their tribal dances and ceremonies . . . pageants of primitive color and rhythm.

CLIFF DWELLINGS

the ancient homes of a vanished peoples, of the 12th century, whose civilization still breathes in the crumbling walls and broken pottery found in the cliffs near Globe.

FISHING

the churning fight of mountain trout . . . or the placid joy of lake fishing for bass . . . you'll find them both in the streams and lakes around Globe.

HUNTING

amidst spectacular scenery in country that abounds in deer, elk, antelope, turkey, dove, quail and occasional bears and mountain lions.

APACHE TRAIL

Follow curving roads through awe inspiring mountains, where mingle echos of the bloody past and Apache war parties.

MINING

silver began Globe's life and gave it its name (from a $12,000 globe shaped hunk of silver ore) but today copper is the "life" of its industry, and Castle Dome with its steps of ore is a stairway of copper.

GLOBE ... GATEWAY TO

ARIZONA'S SCENIC AND RECREATIONAL AREA

A WORLD OF MAGIC REVOLVES AROUND GLOBE . . . . .

There's magic in the word "west" and there's magic in the name "Arizona". The magic of spaciousness, spectacular scenery and sunshine. In Globe you'll enjoy the friendly freedom of wide open spaces, with its wine-like air and the awe inspiring beauty of gorgeous desert and majestic mountains. From the arid desert region sprinkled with cactus, mesquite, and sagebrush to the verdant mountains with sparkling streams and towering pines is just a short trip by car or horseback, if you wish. If you want the thrill of new sights . . . there's the color and pageantry of Apache dances and ceremonials.