My dear Sallie,

Yours of the 23rd (Sunday) came yesterday. You must have a coat. If you meet with a chance to get one, employ her. If you can get a man and wife, do so. - We had a heavy rain yesterday, and it is raining around today - will soon be raining here. The people turn out in immense crowds, but I shall not have time to accomplish a great deal. We have had seven additions, most of them restored. I think half the Church here have back-slidden. I have become very hoarse since I came here - can hardly speak. There are two or three women who try to help with the singing. - They want me to spend a few days at Cisco, and a few at Palo Pinto, but I don't think I can do so. I am worn out with speaking and I am hungry for home. I want to See my dear Sattie and the children Tommy writes me that Miss Mollie has written to bro. Snow that the wedding can not be - So Mrs. Barker says. What am I to do with such a woman? I dont feel like I ought to keep her. I fear that bro. Snow will not feel like returning to Adakam, and we cant afford to lose him.

I am staying with bro. Markberry. He is doing well, and I think is a good man I wonder whether any one has broken up the patch yet. We ought to have some turnip seed planted this wet weather.

wont be surprised to see me at home any time next week - though I have put the time next Tuesday week. If my hoarseness does not improve, I ought to quit speaking certain.

Love to all - Miss the Rev boy.
Yours affectionately,
A. Clark.
