August 1st 89.

My Dear Addison

I am going try to write this evening if little Melbome will let me. This has been such a very warm day, the children were all going to write it - has been so warm they have put it off and now it is meeting time, so they will have to wait till another time. I feel so much and had this evening that I did not go. Carlie has another boil and could not take care of Roy. We would like so much to be there with you. The children don't talk about anything else dont - promise the friends that I will go next - Summer for I am very sure that I cant go without - you and the children. I reckon you commenced preaching last night - and they will have dinner on the grounds today, and a good time generally. You have seen the set of the Kenfolds by this time. My only sister you and Jesse must - go there as often as you can.

She has her share of Mr. Dugg's sensitiveness. I would be so glad if they would become <sup>would</sup> Christians.

I wish you make her a present - for me. a dress I expect - would be very acceptable. Some kind of black goods. Jesse will know what - will sent -

I am not - particular about - a dress. just - any thing that you think will be suitable.

I wish we had some of the apples that are wasting it - is such scarce times about - anything to eat - perhaps took that rest of our nice peaches, the other night.

Tomnie, Alice, and Cora, started to Galveston yesterday.

Mother and Missie are keeping house for them, while they are gone. I am glad you went up there I hope you will have such a good time that you will want to go again. I must close now. Love to all the friends

Your Affectionate
Sallie
