My Dear Addison

I believe yesterday was my time to write but I failed to do so. The children have been faithful in writing this week. We have mailed a letter every day until yesterday. We had two letters from you yesterday. The little children were very proud of their own baby about it say "that's baby's letter" I am going to try to be ready to go with you. I have a good deal of sewing to do. it will keep me busy. I ought to have been through with my summer sewing long ago but - I have not felt much like sewing I am well this week. I am fearful this trip will be too expensive if you think so. ~~if you think~~ ~~to~~ just tell me, I will not be disappointed. The Children are impatient, for the time ^{to} come, but if I do not go two of them can go with you. I don't know how we will get to Weatherford if you do not come. I suppose Cousin David would take us, if we wish, say what you would rather we would do. I have not seen Mother don't know whether she will want to go on as we do or not. I expect not.

She won't like to leave the work for Minnie.

I had a long sorrowful letter from Jesse yesterday. I hope there is a wrong impression out. I have known all the time that it was not - because he wanted higher wages, he knows that Randolph has wanted him out of school for some time. I have seen this for some time but did not know that he suspected it. This is just the way ~~she~~ worked I let out, listen to every thing he hears around and then come to you with it. I don't think you will find any one that will work any more faithfully or faithfully than he has done but I would a thousand times rather he were a way now. I don't think he would ever be happy.

he said they would be back soon to dispose of their things I dont know whether I ought to leave home or not - I would not like for them to leave and me not see them. he said ~~they would tell every thing~~ except feather beds.

Dr. Lancaster was bitten several days ago, by a spider he has been very sick dont think he can live.

Baby is crying I must stop good bye.

your loving Wife
Sallie
