

Bonham Sept. 27⁹¹

Dear Brother and Sister

This will break the long silence between us - the why is I sur-pose is the prep of other duties. All well", up and going.
All going to school but Winnie and Albert - could not get him to go anywhere Laisie goes to unch l. the rest to the free School. They cant do much worse than they did, unch l. has between 50 & 60 Scholars.

There are over 400 in the public School. Private Schools nearly all unim for the present. unch l. is the largest &

I believe. But they cannot from coming. Then bro. Polly complain. They or the most was to come - word came that of them worked and sold small Pox was at rock for the tax. I told them the much le. wrote to P that he were - working against them had better not ^{my} Cerge - that out the advice of any one him to come since the but much le. against - the of citation is over he felt wishes of many of our best heart over it and who members. But much le. is could blame him. But away running things to suit him. The long wished for rain self - regards of the feeling has come and the heavy of others. He or they Sam. and is made into mud.

Charley and a few other. Water is beginning to get will not let any one. Scarce is some sections preach here any length of Trust you had a good be time unless they are in ginning, and are now in line and work and teaching on smoothly with a full according to the views of school. I am again work - prevents. No more saw the sad case that Frank White had his arm torn so badly in the shaker that it had to be amputated.

The great rush is over for the fair. The racing was the attraction.

How could you have managed your school here. Schools all dismissed on Friday. The display was very good for a county fair. Love of all. All affectionately
