

January 11, 1926.

Mr. W. F. Jones,
Sanderson, Texas.

Dear Mr. Jones:

Sometime ago, you were good enough to send the writer a letter in reference to the little incident occurring at College Station during the A. & M. and Texas football game and I hope you will accept my apology for not acknowledging this communication sooner.

Meanwhile, I have received several hundred letters and telegrams and it has been a real pleasure to have received the friendly support shown on this matter as out of the entire list there has only been four or five of a dissenting voice.

We have not published any of these letters or telegrams as I had no desire to use my personal connection with the paper for the purpose of carrying on a personal controversy, with the Governor. Then, again I had no desire to provoke any kind of a controversy that would divert the minds of the public from the real issue.

Thanking you for your interest in the matter and assuring you of my appreciation, I remain,

Sincerely,

AGC.KM

P.S. The poetry which you sent along is all-right, however as stated above we have refrained from publishing anything in connection with the matter other than the Governor's letter and my reply.
