STOCKMARKET CLIMBS

NEW YORK, JUNE 30 - (AP) - The stockmarket was hard-pushed by a midday blast of selling. However at the close, prices were headed upwards. Gains ranged to around three dollars a share. News that President Truman had ordered ground troops into action in Korea started the tremor, but recovery was quick and decisive.

Transactions totaled about $ 2 700 000 shares. Those higher included U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, American Telephone, Kennecott Copper, Dupont, General Electric, Santa Fe and Dow Chemical.
