Two Irishmen Get 20-Year Sentences

"I came out of jail alive, I will come out of it to get a wider view of Ireland. If there are only half a dozen men with walking-sticks fighting for Ireland I shall join them," said Conor MacNiall, a veteran of the Easter Rising, shortly before he and another Irishman were each sentenced to 20 years penal servitude on charges under the Explosive Substances Act.

Mr. MacNiall, who was described as a "sawyer," was address as a laborer in a department store, Cottrell Street, Chatham-on-Mole-ditch, Manchester, and with John Duggan, labourer of Tonton Road, Wythenshawe, was found guilty of conspiring with Mr. Duggan and others to possess explosives and to possess explosive substances.

Duggan broke silence only once during the trial and that was when a detective-sergeant was giving evidence regarding a suit which belonged to a third man, the dock, Patrick Mortimer (21), however, Randall Street, Wythenshawe, who was found not guilty on all counts and was discharged.

Flying Cowboy Delights Foynes

(IRELAND PRESS Staff Reporter) Foynes, Wednesday.

AFTER a few run-ins with Air Forces of varying fidelity, Yankee, the American veteran of the transatlantic air business, has now settled down to a regular weekly service over the simple, regular, weekly, Foynes-New York.

The company will use a single engine Foynes, which is being flown to the United States for weekly work, while the regular weekly service over the simple, regular, weekly, Foynes-New York.

The service is believed to be the first regular weekly service over the simple, regular, weekly, Foynes-New York.

JAPAN'S ORDER TO CLEAR OUT

Negotiations Imperiled By Port Demands

The Japanese Cabinet has decided that they will not be opened until Britain has given "some definite guarantees" that she will adopt a policy of strict centralism and refrain from obstructing Japanese

The spokesman of the Japanese Foreign Office said yesterday that the talks would not be decided until the British Ambassador had a meeting with the Japanese Foreign Minister and the two "Ambassadors" that said at this meeting Mr. Arta will make the final decision.

Spies Caused Expulsions, Says Rome

"I have no personal knowledge of the facts," Mr. Killoh, the British agent in Rome, said yesterday, "but I understand that the British Ambassador has received a warning from the Italian authorities that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies caused expulsions, the Italian authorities have alleged, and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Roosevelt's New Move For Neutrality Law

President Roosevelt, who is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President, is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President.

Spies who have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States.

What's his wife should do

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President, is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President.

McEntagarts, 16 Grafton Street, Dublin.

FLYING STANDARDS

(IRELAND PRESS Staff Reporter) Foynes, Wednesday.

"I have no personal knowledge of the facts," Mr. Killoh, the British agent in Rome, said yesterday, "but I understand that the British Ambassador has received a warning from the Italian authorities that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies caused expulsions, the Italian authorities have alleged, and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies who have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States.

What's his wife should do

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President, is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President.

McEntagarts, 16 Grafton Street, Dublin.

FLYING STANDARDS

(IRELAND PRESS Staff Reporter) Foynes, Wednesday.

"I have no personal knowledge of the facts," Mr. Killoh, the British agent in Rome, said yesterday, "but I understand that the British Ambassador has received a warning from the Italian authorities that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies caused expulsions, the Italian authorities have alleged, and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies who have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States.

What's his wife should do

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President, is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President.

McEntagarts, 16 Grafton Street, Dublin.

FLYING STANDARDS

(IRELAND PRESS Staff Reporter) Foynes, Wednesday.

"I have no personal knowledge of the facts," Mr. Killoh, the British agent in Rome, said yesterday, "but I understand that the British Ambassador has received a warning from the Italian authorities that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies caused expulsions, the Italian authorities have alleged, and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies who have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States.

What's his wife should do

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President, is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President.

McEntagarts, 16 Grafton Street, Dublin.

FLYING STANDARDS

(IRELAND PRESS Staff Reporter) Foynes, Wednesday.

"I have no personal knowledge of the facts," Mr. Killoh, the British agent in Rome, said yesterday, "but I understand that the British Ambassador has received a warning from the Italian authorities that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies caused expulsions, the Italian authorities have alleged, and that the British Embassy in Rome has been segregated.

Spies who have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States, have been arrested in various parts of the United States.

What's his wife should do

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President, is reported to be considering a declaratory of neutrality, which is being considered by the President.

McEntagarts, 16 Grafton Street, Dublin.