

VERGIL R. PARKER
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
114 1-2 WEST BELKNAP
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

April 17th. 1943.

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Ft. Worth, Texas.

Mr. Carter:-

With gladness and relief I learn that your beloved son, Lieutenant Amon G. Carter, Jr., who was reported missing, has been found. Although a prisoner of war, and his immediate future is uncertain, it is my prayer, and my belief that Lieutenant Carter will return to you, and to us in due time.

I have children of my own, and can understand the sorrow and grief you, as the father of Lieutenant Amon G. Carter, Jr. have experienced.

I feel a hesitancy in speaking words of consolation and sympathy to a man of your courage and understanding, but I feel that way about it, and it is in response to my sentiments, am writing you these lines. May God bring Lieutenant, Amon G. Carter, Jr. back to us safely, and soon.

Very truly yours,

Virgil R. Parker.
Virgil R. Parker.

