

B. E. HUTCHINSON
341 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE
DETROIT

April 29, 1943

Dear Amon:

I was delighted this morning to receive under cover of your envelope the accounts that your son, reported missing, is now a prisoner in Germany. I can imagine how thankful you must feel that your original worst fears were unfounded.

We are all working to the end that the day of his deliverance by the force of our own arms may not be far off.

Sincerely yours,

Amon C. Carter, Esq.
400 West Seventh Street
Fort Worth, Texas

