May 3, 1943.

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Mr. Carter:

It was very good of you to cause to be sent to me the newspaper clippings with respect to your son, and which confirmed the good news that I had already had from Harold Hough. One says "good news" a little wryly because being a prisoner of war in Germany is certainly no circus, but compared to the worst that might have happened, it is good news indeed, and I am sure that only a short stay in Fort Worth, after victory is achieved, will suffice to counteract the hardships that your son will suffer in the interim.

With cordial good wishes, I am

Cordially yours,

SYDNEY M. KAYE
