

HERBERT FLEISHHACKER
SAN FRANCISCO

May 3, 1943

My dear Amon,

I cannot tell you how delighted I was to learn through your paper that Amon, Jr., is still alive. It is unfortunate that he is in the hands of the enemy, but I trust that his exchange can be arranged ere long.

Herbert, Jr., has been transferred again and is now at Dutch Harbor and thereabouts, but, thank God, we still hear from him frequently.

With warmest regards to you, I am

As ever,

Herbert Fleishacker
