

Roscoe Heyman, Jr. In German Prison

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Heyman Receive Letter From Roscoe, Jr. Saying He Got in Berlin Wrong Way

ROSCOE HEYMAN, Jr., who was reported missing in action in Tunisia several weeks ago has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Heyman, that he has arrived in Germany, where he started nearly two years ago, but not like he intended to get there. He writes that he is in a German Prison Camp, after being captured in Tunisia in a tank he was driving when the Americans had a little setback in the early stages of the Tunisian battle. The letter passed by the German censors mentioned several items that he could use if his parents would send them through Red Cross and they are planning sending him a package as soon as it can be cleared. He has not been reported in prison camp yet by the U. S. War Department. The News and the rest of the Menard people join Mr. and Mrs. Heyman in their thanks that Roscoe, Jr., was not killed; although being in
