Dear Mr. Carter,

It has been some time since I wrote you - and I wonder if you have heard anything from Amos. I sincerely hope you have good news.

Mrs. James Bond of Waco has had word from the government that Capt. Bond has been liberated by the Russians. Several of the boys from oflag 64 are back in the States. I hope some of the Texans are in the group.

I feel that we will soon be seeing our loved ones - again. The Russians are in Berlin - maybe, it will mean more of the boys will be released. We can just wait and pray for the day our boys will all be home.

My last letter is still Dec. 31st, but from the tone of his last letters he seemed in excellent spirits and said they were all fine.

I hope you have heard or will soon and shall appreciate any information you may receive about these boys.

Let's continue to hope and pray that they will soon be home with us again.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ivan C. Carter
