COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

March 6, 1945

ROBERT V. SHIRLEY, CLERK

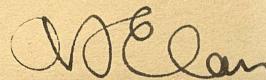

Honorable Amon G. Carter
FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM
Ft. Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

Before Senator Connally left for Mexico City to attend the Conference on War and Peace, he addressed a communication to the Secretary of State relative to the matter on which you wrote. We are today in receipt of a letter from the Department of State, which I hand you herewith for your information.

You may be assured that the Senator is most concerned for your son's welfare, and will continue to keep a close check on the movements of OFLAG 64. Whenever he has anything new to report, he will advise you at once.

Very truly yours,

A.S.E. Carr
Secretary to Senator Connally
