Mr. Arthur N. Cotton,
Associate Director,
War Prisoners Aid Committee
Y. M. C. A.,
347 Madison Avenue
New York City, N.Y.

Appreciate your letter March 21. Is there any way to ascertain through your Geneva offices by cable at my expense a list names comprizing three hundred seventy four former American prisoners in Oflag 64 which have been transferred to Stalag III-A at Luckenwalde as indicated in your letter? Associated Press carried statement morning paper from London by Sir James Grigg, British War Secretary, advising that members of Oflag 64 transferred to Oflag 13-B at Hammelburg PERIOD Have you any information confirming this? We have had indications that the camp may have been divided. If so part of the members could be in Luckenwalde and part in Hammelburg PERIOD My son, Amon G. Carter, Jr., being a prisoner of war in Oflag 64, I am anxious to have all available information regardless of cost and expense. Please answer collect. Thanks.

Amon Carter
