Dear Papa,

As you wanted me to tell you how I got home I at Ft. W. where I left you.

I got very sleepy before I got W. I nearly went to sleep. A man on the train told me when to get off. I then got on the Bus paid the man 25 cts and went up to the Larson & Lewis house and got of and the man showed me a little room by my self. I didend get any supper.

Next morning the man woke me. I had a cold breakfast.

I paid the hotel man one dollar and got on the stage.

I got both tired and sleepy before I got home. When I got here brother was making a Telephone Mamma was sewing, Sister was peeling watermelon rinds to make preserves and I don't know what Bessie, Jennie and Roy were doing. I am still coping with my cold. Mr. Frank Rowland preached last night. Well I have told you how I got home so I will close. Write soon. Your son Charlie.
