

My Dear Mother

I am afraid I didn't tell you fully how much we appreciate a great thing you sent, I prefer I prefer to say that, the coffee came through all right, and we were very glad to get them they all as high, and we could think of enjoying them the pie was just for and so is the cake although there isn't much of it now.
The ham is excellent, but then your ham was we agree for ham. He had some very, a get along with some of the potatoes and Tompeter in it and it was fine. Berrie made some palam pie just last night for supper nicely. I helped dred. He ate all the pie just after sent at a rapid rate.

He will have the macaroni Sunday I guess. He would have to buy much more before Christmas. I am very glad it went good until we can get home. I wish father could find some good friend that would give him a place to come home on Christmas. He ought to see if he can't find one.

Much love

Genevieve.
