Dear Mr. Deakins:

Lieutenant Carter's box has been packed as per your instructions and all the things that you sent us were included. You will receive a list of the contents, the shipping date, and the cost of the box on a penny postcard as usual.

I am returning your sheet of rules and regulations from the office of the Provost Marshall General. Two pounds of chocolate are now permitted in each box.

Thanking you for your order, I am

Yours sincerely,

Stuart C. Welch
