Fort Worth, Texas,
October 12, 1943.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Maxson, Jr.,
Care Chi Omega House
Austin, Texas.

It was a shock to read in the paper of Bill's tragic death and I hasten to express my heartfelt sympathy to you and his loved ones and only wish it were possible to do or say something to lessen your sorrow. I am sure Amon Junior, who is a prisoner of war in Germany, would join me in condolence were it possible and I am writing him this sad message as he had a great admiration for your son and his Culver days friend.

Most sincerely,

Amon Carter
