

Monday Morning

Dear Brother:

Myrtle is still with us, will stay this week. Have not gotten my pay yet, so I can't send you a birthday present - am sorry, but can't help it.

I suppose we will be paid at the last of this week, next Monday free school opens and Blanche will start in - she is so glad she can go. Mr. Holman went with Myrtle to church last evening.

I will write you a letter some time this week.

Hope you are getting to work good and enjoying it. I think of you so much and wish to be with you. much love.

Sister.
