Thorp Spring, Texas,

my dear Brother:

June 14 -

Let us know just when you can come home - we want to count days. Can hardly wait. - I dream of you most every night.
Think perhaps I can keep Blancher until you come - will do so if possible. She would not mind staying here with us if all were right with you and her - but under the present circumstances of course I could not insist on her staying here with us, but she can visit awhile with Patti then.
If she will not remain until you come she and I will ~~marry~~ <sup>marry</sup> you in Ft. Worth - she has consented to that.

 I talked with her this evening for the first time - we talked all about it.
 When I told her I wanted her to stay until you come she said, "Oh, I can't, I want to see Addie, but he doesn't want to see me." Then she told me all about it, how she was all to blame, it was just her careless way about writing. She doesn't excuse herself at all. She said you had always been too good to her, she knew she would get your letters even when she failed to write.

It was just as I thought - she let little things keep her from writing.

Last summer she was at her brother's where there were so many children and little opportunity for writing - of course were she like you and I she would not have let any thing prevent her writing - and Blanche can't write to any one unless she is in the right mood.

I don't want either of you to be influenced by me - as I told her this evening.

There is nothing I desire more than that you always be sweet hearts - but if this can't be I'll submit. And I'll ever be a true friend to her, as I've tried to be since you went away.

Thorp Spring, Texas,

She came and I know she was not enjoying commencement. She said this evening that she had not enjoyed it at all - every thing reminded her so much of you - every place brought to mind some time when you were together.

She is not happy I know. I think she does still love you - and if your love can be recalled I think all will be as before. She doesn't think you care anything at all now - or ever again - and she knows she is to blame for ~~losing~~ your love.

If I did not feel that all would be well when you are together I would not have you see each other at all. It would be much easier to just break it off now - but the bravest, the wisest way is to be together and talk it over plainly - and if the old feeling doesn't return to each one - then quit. The only danger in such a course is that the old love might return to one heart and not the other - such cruel things do happen in

If you feel there is a possibility that the old love is not all gone - and you want to see her here then insist on her remaining. Tell her you want to see her

But don't let ~~his~~ influence you, Brother, I want you to do just as you think

Pray for guidance.

Thorp Spring, Texas,

If you have thought about it and prayed about and still feel that it would be best to quit, then do it. If in any way you feel you are not suited - if you feel you could not trust implicitly - have of patching it up.

It patched up friendships rarely amounts

Papa wrote you of the Sims Seminary -

If you can get in there it will be a

Don't, what ever you do, consent to go to

Thorp Spring, Texas,

Brother;

If you can't come until the close of school - and have time to run about a little favor for me up there I'll be very much obliged. Don't bother about it unless you have time.

I want a little silver bangle on two pretty pins - with J. M. G. on one side and W. M. S. on the other. I'm not particular about it being the same old style of bangle - if there is anything new.

Anything neat and pretty will do. I want it for a little girl who was in my room this past session. Don't want it to cost more than $1.50 any way.

Let me know if you need more money. Don't neglect your eyes - have them treated.

If you can't come home before the close Blanche and I may run down to Galveston for a week and meet you on our return.
You - Sister
