Mrs. P. D. McIntyre,
205 Spring Street,
Shelbyville, Tenn.

Dear Mrs. McIntyre:

So much has been happening since your letter of February 11 I have delayed acknowledging it feeling that from day to day there might be some news to give you. However, it seems that no definite information has been available. Some of the boys were liberated during the confusion of the evacuation and others during the first night after their march from Schubin to Exum.

Oflag 64 was located at Schubin in Poland about 100 miles south of Danzig and information from the War Department was to the effect that these boys had been moved to Luckenwald, Germany, about 35 miles south of Berlin. In all probability they have been moved again, so nothing definite has been ascertained. I shall appreciate any information you may receive and likewise will pass whatever we have along to you.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,
