

Wednesday

Dear Mr. Carter,

It was very thoughtful of you, ^{to} write me concerning my son, Sam Palasuta. I appreciate it very much and I must say it did help me a lot.

Since learning that your son was also missing, I kept close notice in reading paper to see if the paper carried the news about son. I was very tickled when I noticed this morning that your son was a prisoner of Germany.

I was so happy to hear the good news.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Lucille Calasota
