Mr. Amon G. Carter, Editor and Publisher
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

My dear Amon:

Ever since I first heard the good news a few days ago of the safety of your son, I have been anxiously awaiting more details, which we now have in yesterday's issue of your paper.

The exciting and historical experiences of Lt. Amon Carter, Jr. has thrilled everyone in Fort Worth, and all Fort Worth takes pride in having him back with us again. I personally, together with everyone in my Consulate Office, share your joy in his liberation from the horrors of a German concentration camp and safe return to this City.

Best wishes.

Sincerely your friend,

Jack Danciger
