Dear Amon:

I read with much pleasure the item in the paper to the effect that your son and also Senator Herring's son had been freed and that they were both in fine condition. And I was equally pleased to see that you were able to meet each other in Germany. I am so glad that the timing of your trip worked out that way and I'm sure that it was a tremendous thrill to both of you to see each other again. Now you can relax and stop worrying and get a rest and peace of mind which you deserve. Take it easy.

Sincerely,

Edgar Kobak
