Hon. Amon G. Carter,
Shady Oak Farm,
Fort Worth,
Texas. (Where the west begins).

Dear Amon:

What a thrill the good news of your son's being liberated from that Nazi camp was. It was really something but when it is also possible for his father to be with him in Germany, boy, that is out of the world.

I suppose you will get many clips about the good news which broke in the Sunday papers, but just in case you miss one I am enclosing the picture and the news item which appeared in yesterday's Daily News.

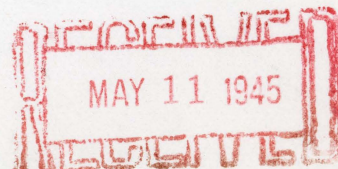

I can have partial understanding of how you feel as my oldest boy's ship, a destroyer, was sunk off Okinawa several weeks ago. Fortunately he was not injured and is on his way home now.

Arthur joins me in extending our best wishes as well as are mutual thanks for the splendid tub of West Texas pecans which we are enjoying at our homes.

Kindest regards,

Peter Murphy
